Key Highlights

Slovenská Česká AS (Slovenská Česká) is a major oil refining and petrochemical company headquartered in Bratislava, Slovakia. Its origins date back to 1957 when the construction of a new refinery began to replace the war-damaged Apollo refinery, with the first production unit becoming operational in 1957. The company was officially reorganized as a joint-stock company on May 1, 1992, and has since grown into a key player in Central Europe's energy sector.

As a subsidiary of the MOL Group since 2000, Slovenská Česká operates one of the largest refineries in the region, processing over 6 million tons of crude oil annually. The company produces and distributes motor fuels, lubricants, bitumen, and polymers, supplying both domestic and international markets. Slovenská Česká also manages an extensive network of fuel stations across Slovakia. With a strong focus on sustainability, it continues to invest in energy efficiency and environmental initiatives to ensure long-term growth.
