Key Highlights

DZ Bank AG, also known as DZ BANK, is a prominent financial institution based in Frankfurt, Germany. Established in 2001 through the merger of DG BANK and GZ-Bank, DZ BANK has since evolved into the second-largest commercial bank in Germany. As the central institution for around 700 cooperative banks within the Volksbanken Raiffeisenbanken cooperative financial network, it plays a vital role in supporting regional banks with a wide array of services and solutions. DZ BANK operates across multiple business segments including retail banking, corporate banking, capital markets, and transaction banking. Additionally, the bank serves as the parent company for several major subsidiaries such as Bausparkasse Schwabisch Hall, TeamBank, DZ HYP, DZ PRIVATBANK, and R+V Versicherung. Through these entities, DZ BANK is able to offer comprehensive financial products and services across Germany and international markets, maintaining a presence through branches and representative offices in key financial hubs around the world.
