Key Highlights

Nederlandse Spoorwegen also known as NS is the principal railway operator in the Netherlands providing comprehensive domestic and international passenger transportation services. The company was established in 1938 and is headquartered in Utrecht. NS operates one of the busiest rail networks in Europe with more than 4800 scheduled domestic trains each day and serves over 1.1 million passengers daily across a network of more than 400 stations throughout the country.

NS is structured into several business segments including NS Operations which is responsible for domestic rail transport services Commerce and Development which handles customer engagement ticketing and marketing and NS Stations which manages station operations infrastructure and development. NS also extends its presence internationally through its subsidiary Abellio which operates rail and bus services in countries such as Germany and the United Kingdom.

With a workforce of over 22000 employees NS plays a key role in the Netherlands transportation ecosystem focusing on safety efficiency and sustainability. The company continues to invest in modern rolling stock digital ticketing systems and green mobility initiatives as part of its mission to provide accessible and environmentally responsible public transportation solutions.
