Key Highlights

Felleskjøpet Agri SA is a prominent agricultural cooperative in Norway, serving as a vital link between farmers and the agricultural industry. Established in 1896, the company has its headquarters located at Norway. Felleskjøpet Agri operates primarily in the agricultural sector, with its main operation segments including the production and distribution of animal feed, seeds, fertilizers, and agricultural machinery.

The cooperative also engages in grain trading and processing, and provides a wide range of farming supplies and equipment to its members and customers. Over the years, Felleskjøpet Agri has expanded its operations beyond its core agricultural focus to include retail stores that cater to both farmers and the general public, offering gardening supplies, pet food, and outdoor equipment.

The company's primary operating geography is Norway, where it maintains a strong presence across the country through its network of stores, production facilities, and distribution centers. Felleskjøpet Agri also has operations in Sweden through its subsidiary, Granngården AB, further extending its reach in the Nordic agricultural market. As a cooperative owned by Norwegian farmers, Felleskjøpet Agri plays a crucial role in supporting and developing the country's agricultural sector, balancing commercial operations with the interests of its member-owners.
