Key Highlights

Aareal Bank AG is a prominent international financial institution headquartered in Wiesbaden, Germany. Established in 1923, the bank has evolved into a leading provider of financing, banking, and digital solutions, primarily serving the property sector and related industries.

Operating across Europe, North America, and the Asia-Pacific region, Aareal Bank offers a comprehensive range of services through its three main business segments: Structured Property Financing, Banking and Digital Solutions, and Aareon. The Structured Property Financing segment supports clients in large-scale commercial property investments, including office buildings, hotels, shopping centers, logistics, residential properties, and student housing. The Banking and Digital Solutions segment provides digitalization services for businesses in the housing, property management, and energy sectors, combining advisory services with traditional corporate banking. Aareon, a subsidiary of Aareal Bank, specializes in ERP software and digital solutions for the European property industry.

Listed on the MDAX index, Aareal Bank is recognized as a significant institution under European Banking Supervision. In 2023, the bank was acquired by Atlantic BidCo GmbH, a consortium led by Advent International, Centerbridge Partners, and a subsidiary of CPP Investments.
