Key Highlights

AES Andes SA, formerly known as AES Gener SA, is a leading energy company headquartered in Las Condes, Santiago, Chile. Incorporated in 1981, the company has established itself as a key player in the South American energy sector. AES Andes primarily operates in the electricity generation segment, with a diverse portfolio of assets including thermal, hydroelectric, solar, and wind power plants.

The company's operations span across three main geographical areas: Chile, Colombia, and Argentina. In Chile, AES Andes is one of the largest electricity generators, with a significant presence in the country's central and northern regions. The company's Colombian operations are conducted through its subsidiary AES Colombia, which operates hydroelectric plants in the country.

In Argentina, AES Andes maintains thermal generation facilities. The company's strategic focus on renewable energy sources has led to substantial investments in solar and wind projects, particularly in Chile, as part of its commitment to sustainable energy production. AES Andes plays a crucial role in meeting the growing energy demands of South America while increasingly emphasizing clean energy solutions and environmental sustainability in its operations.
