Key Highlights

Chunghwa Post Co., Ltd. is Taiwan's national postal service provider, established in 1896. Initially created as the Great Qing Post under the Qing Dynasty, it became a government-owned corporation in 2003, operating under the Ministry of Transportation and Communications. The company is headquartered in Taipei, Taiwan, at No. 55, Sec. 2, Jinshan S. Rd., Da'an District. It maintains a significant presence throughout the island, with more than 2,000 post offices spread across Taiwan, making it one of the most widely accessible service providers in the country.

Chunghwa Post offers a diverse range of services, including traditional mail delivery, logistics, financial services like savings accounts and money transfers, and life insurance products. The company also plays a key role in Taiwan's digital transformation with services like the ezgo parcel delivery platform. With a workforce of approximately 26,000 employees, Chunghwa Post not only supports essential communication but also contributes to financial inclusion and economic growth, making it a cornerstone of Taiwan's infrastructure.
