Key Highlights

CaixaBank, S.A., a leading Spanish financial services institution, was officially incorporated on March 1, 2011, following a comprehensive restructuring of the "la Caixa" group. This transformation involved the segregation of its retail banking and insurance operations into a new entity, CaixaBank, while "la Caixa" refocused on its social initiatives through the "la Caixa" Foundation. Headquartered in Valencia, Spain, CaixaBank also maintains operational offices in Barcelona and Madrid. The bank is a prominent player in the financial services sector, offering a wide array of services including retail banking, corporate banking, insurance, and investment solutions. It is listed on the Bolsa de Madrid and is a constituent of the IBEX 35 index. With a robust presence across Spain, CaixaBank has expanded its operations internationally, establishing a significant footprint in Portugal, and maintaining a representative office in Lima, Peru. The bank's strategic growth is underscored by its commitment to innovation, customer-centric services, and a strong capital base, positioning it as a key player in the European financial landscape.
