Key Highlights

Adani Enterprises Limited (AEL) is the flagship company of the Adani Group, one of India's largest and most diversified conglomerates. Founded in 1988 by Gautam Adani, the company is headquartered in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India. AEL has established itself as a dynamic incubator of new businesses, playing a crucial role in building and scaling enterprises in sectors that are fundamental to India's infrastructure and energy needs. The company operates across a wide range of industries, including integrated resource management, mining services, new energy, transportation, and digital infrastructure. Notably, Adani Enterprises has been instrumental in India's push toward green energy through its subsidiary Adani New Industries, which is focused on the development of green hydrogen, solar panels, wind turbines, and battery storage systems. In addition to its contributions to sustainable energy, AEL manages critical assets such as airports, roads, and data centers. Through its joint venture AdaniConneX, the company is building hyperscale data centers to support India's growing digital economy. It also operates several major airports across the country and is involved in road development projects, further strengthening its infrastructure portfolio. Historically, AEL has served as the incubation arm of the Adani Group, nurturing and spinning off successful ventures like Adani Ports, Adani Power, Adani Transmission, and Adani Green Energy. This strategy has allowed the group to scale rapidly across diverse sectors while maintaining strategic focus.
