Report description:

The Africa collagen market size reached nearly USD 344.62 Million in 2024. The market is projected to grow at a CAGR of 6.20% between 2025 and 2034 to reach a value of around USD 628.91 Million by 2034.

Key Trends in the Market

Collagen refers to a type of protein which is abundant in the human body. It performs various functions in the human body, such as holding the cells of the body together and providing elasticity to the skin.

- Collagen finds wide usage in pharmaceutical and biomedical applications owing to its wound-healing and tissue-augmenting properties. Hence, the burgeoning pharmaceutical sector across Africa is fuelling the Africa collagen market growth.
- The rapid surge in the ageing population across several parts of Africa is likely to boost the sales of anti-ageing and anti-wrinkle cosmetic products in the coming years. In this regard, collagen is anticipated to witness a heightened incorporation in various beauty and cosmetic products to prevent the skin from sagging.
- Increasing awareness pertaining to the advantages offered by collagen-based health supplements, such as relieved joint pain, prevention of bone loss, and increased muscle mass, is a crucial Africa collagen market trend.

Market Share by Application

The food and beverage sector accounts for a significant portion of the Africa collagen market share. This can be attributed to the increasing disposable income levels, rising population, and rapid urbanisation across the region, which are propelling foreign direct investments in the food and beverage sector. In addition, collagen is found in high-protein products such as fish, poultry, meat, and egg, among others, which are witnessing a significant demand in the region.

Market Share by Region

As per the Africa collagen market analysis, South Africa is likely to robustly grow in the forecast period, owing to the country's thriving cosmetics and personal care sector. The rising hygiene and beauty consciousness among South Africans is likely to further propel sales of collagen-based beauty capsules and pure hydrolysed collagen creams and powders in the forecast period.

Competitive Landscape

The comprehensive EMR report provides an in-depth assessment of the market based on the Porter's five forces model along with giving a SWOT analysis. The report gives a detailed analysis of the key players in the Africa collagen market, covering their competitive landscape and latest developments like mergers, acquisitions, investments and expansion plans.
