Report description:

The Oman data center colocation market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 21.03% from 2024 to 2030.

Some of the existing colocation data center operators, such as Equinix and Ooredoo, are coming up with their colocation facilities in Oman, which is likely to increase their colocation market revenue share during the forecast period.

The Oman colocation data center market is one of the growing colocation data center markets in the Middle East region. The average occupancy rate of data center facilities is expected to reach around 93%, indicating that the vacancy rate will be only around 7% by 2030. Furthermore, the industry is majorly dominated by local and global data center operators. Datamount, Ooredoo, CloudAcropolis, Equinix, and Oman Data Park stand as the prominent colocation service providers in the country.
