Summary

Ice Cream in Australia industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market size (value and volume 2019-24, and forecast to 2029). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

- Ice cream market includes retail sales of impulse ice cream - single serve, artisanal ice cream, and take-home and bulk ice cream. Impulse ice cream - single serve segment covers individually packaged products such as ice cream bars, cones, cups, and sticks intended for immediate consumption. Artisanal ice cream segment includes high-quality, small-batch ice cream crafted using traditional techniques, often incorporating premium or locally sourced ingredients. Take-home and bulk ice cream segment covers larger packaging formats such as tubs, pints, and multi-pack products.
- The Australian ice cream market recorded revenues of $2,156.7 million in 2024, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.6% between 2024-29.
- Market consumption volumes declined with a negative CAGR of 1.0% between 2024-29, reaching a total of 257.7 million kilograms in 2024.
- The sluggish performance of Australia's ice cream market over the historic period can be attributed to the subdued economic growth, which constrained discretionary spending.
