The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

- The cat care market includes retail sales of cat food, cat litter, cat treats & milk, and cat toys. The cat food segment covers dry cat food, kitten food, and moist cat food. The cat litter segment includes silica-based litters, clumping clay litter, and non-clumping clay litters. The cat treats & milk segment includes softy treats, crunchy treats, dehydrated fish or meat treats, dental treats, etc. The cat milk segment covers powdered cat milk formulas, flavored cat milk drinks, etc. The market is valued according to retail selling price (RSP) and includes any applicable taxes.
- The Japanese cat care market recorded revenues of $2,462.6 million in 2024, representing a negative compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 3.3% between 2019-24.
- The cat food segment accounted for the market's largest proportion in 2024, with total revenues of $1,714.6 million, equivalent to 69.6% of the market's overall value.
- During 2019-24, the Japanese cat care market faced a period of decline due to demographic, economic, and cultural factors. The country's aging population reduced pet ownership, as older individuals often struggle with pet care. Economic pressures, including rising living costs, led households to cut spending on pet products and services.
