Key Highlights

Investor AB, founded in 1916 by the Wallenberg family, is a leading Swedish investment company headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden. With over a century of history, Investor AB is a long-term, active owner of high-quality global companies, aiming to create value for people and society by building strong and sustainable businesses. The company maintains a diversified portfolio across three main business areas: Listed Companies, Patricia Industries, and Investments in EQT. In Listed Companies, Investor AB holds significant minority stakes in globally recognized firms, actively contributing to strategic decisions and value creation. Patricia Industries encompasses wholly-owned subsidiaries, partner-owned companies, and other financial investments, emphasizing long-term operational growth. Additionally, the company holds ownership in EQT AB and investments in EQT-managed funds, expanding its reach in private equity markets. Investor AB is closely linked to the Wallenberg Foundations, which have awarded over SEK 33,000 million in research grants since 1917, supporting Swedish innovation and scientific excellence. In 2024, the company distributed SEK 3,500 million in dividends to its owners. Beyond investment, Investor AB engages with communities through initiatives in youth, education, and entrepreneurship, supporting organizations such as Young Enterprise Sweden, Beredskapslyftet, and the Swedish Chambers of Commerce. Its global presence and active ownership model have positioned Investor AB as a cornerstone of sustainable value creation.
