Key Highlights

Talanx AG, headquartered in Hanover, Germany, was founded in 1996 as a pure-play holding company and began its operational activities in 2003. Over the years, the Group has evolved into a leading multi-brand provider in the insurance and financial services industry, combining both primary insurance and reinsurance activities. In 2019, Talanx AG obtained a reinsurance license, allowing it to act as an intragroup reinsurer for its primary insurance companies. Its largest shareholder is HDI V.a.G., a mutual insurance company holding approximately 77% of shares, while the remaining 23% are publicly traded. The Group operates under several brands, including HDI, which serves retail and industrial clients; Hannover Re, one of the world's largest reinsurers; LifeStyle Protection and neue leben for bancassurance; TARGO insurers; and Ampega, a fund provider and asset manager. Talanx conducts business through its Corporate & Specialty Division (Industrial Lines), Retail Germany, Retail International, Reinsurance divisions, and financial services. With a workforce of around 31,414 employees, the Group is active in over 175 countries, delivering reliable insurance solutions and fostering entrepreneurship under its guiding purpose: Together we take care of the unexpected and foster entrepreneurship. Talanx's strong multi-brand approach and global reach make it a significant player in both the primary insurance and reinsurance markets.
