Key Highlights

Oil and Natural Gas Corporation Limited (ONGC), India's largest government-owned oil and gas explorer and producer, was incorporated on June 23, 1993, as a public limited company under the Companies Act, evolving from its origins as a statutory body founded in 1956 by the Government of India. Headquartered at Vasant Kunj, New Delhi-110070, the company operates under the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas and holds Maharatna status since 2010. ONGC maintains a robust geographic presence across India, with activities spanning 11 domestic assets, 7 exploratory basins, and significant overseas operations in 15 countries, contributing around 70% of India's crude oil and 84% of natural gas production. Its business segments encompass upstream exploration and production of hydrocarbons, refining through subsidiaries like Mangalore Refinery and Petrochemicals Limited, and emerging areas such as coal-bed methane, shale gas, and petrochemicals via joint ventures like ONGC Petro additions Limited. As a central public sector undertaking, ONGC drives energy security with integrated operations from inland basins like Cambay and Assam-Arakan to offshore fields, while pursuing global equity acquisitions.
