Key Highlights

Suzano S.A. is a Brazilian pulp and paper company headquartered at Av. Professor Magalhaes Neto, 1752 andar, Salvador, Bahia, Brazil. Founded in 1924, Suzano has grown to become one of the world's largest producers of eucalyptus pulp and a leading paper manufacturer. The company operates in two main segments: Pulp and Paper. In the Pulp segment, Suzano produces and sells hardwood pulp and fluff pulp, while the Paper segment focuses on the production and sale of printing and writing paper, paperboard, and tissue products. Suzano's operations span across Brazil, with production facilities strategically located in the states of Bahia, Espirito Santo, Maranhao, Mato Grosso do Sul, Para, and Sao Paulo. The company also maintains an international presence with sales offices in China, the United States, Switzerland, and Austria, serving customers in more than 80 countries across six continents. Committed to sustainability and innovation, Suzano manages vast areas of planted forests and preserved native vegetation, integrating its operations with environmental conservation efforts and community development initiatives throughout its areas of influence.
