Key Highlights

ASB Bank Limited, incorporated in 1847, is one of New Zealand's longest-standing and most trusted financial institutions. Headquartered in Auckland, New Zealand, ASB has played a pivotal role in the development of the country's banking sector, evolving from a local savings bank into a full-service financial provider. As a subsidiary of the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, ASB benefits from both deep local roots and the strength of a global financial network. Operating primarily in the financial services sector, ASB offers a comprehensive suite of banking products and services, including personal, business, and rural banking, as well as wealth management and insurance solutions. The bank is recognized for its focus on innovation and customer-centric digital banking experiences, having been an early adopter of online and mobile banking technologies in the region. ASB's core market is New Zealand, where it maintains a strong presence through an extensive branch and ATM network, alongside robust digital platforms. While its direct operations are concentrated within New Zealand, its affiliation with the Commonwealth Bank group extends its strategic reach into the Asia-Pacific region. ASB continues to uphold a strong commitment to supporting local communities, fostering economic growth, and leading in sustainable banking practices across its home market.
