Key Highlights

Taishin International Bank Co., Ltd., established on February 25, 1992, and officially inaugurated on March 23, 1992, is a privately held bank headquartered in Taiwan. Founded under the leadership of Chairman Thomas Wu, the bank has grown from a local institution into a significant financial player in the region. Its leadership team includes President Sharon Lin and Head of Trust Business Chen Hsin Pei. Over the years, Taishin Bank expanded through strategic mergers, notably with Dah An Commercial Bank in 2002, and the integration of Taishin Bills Finance Corporation in 2011, enhancing operational efficiency and resource utilization. Domestically, the bank operates numerous branches across Taiwan, serving retail, corporate, and trust banking clients. Internationally, Taishin Bank has established a strong global presence, including branches in Hong Kong (2003), Singapore (2014), Tokyo (2016), Brisbane (2017), and Fukuoka (2024), along with representative offices in Ho Chi Minh City, Yangon, Shanghai, Bangkok, and Malaysia. This network supports Taiwanese businesses and customers in Greater China and beyond. Taishin Bank's business segments include commercial banking, trust services, offshore banking, and wealth management. With a history spanning over three decades, it continues to grow its financial footprint while providing comprehensive banking solutions to domestic and international clients.
