Key Highlights

Founded in 1976 by royal decree, SABIC has evolved from a national industrial initiative into one of the world's leading diversified chemical companies. Headquartered in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, the company has built a deeply integrated global footprint, operating across 43 countries, supported by 60 manufacturing and compounding sites, 20 technology centers, and a workforce of more than 28,000 employees. Its commercial reach extends to over 140 markets, enabled by robust supply chains and long-standing customer relationships. SABIC's portfolio spans key segments such as petrochemicals, polymers, and agri-nutrients, with leadership positions in products including polyethylene, polypropylene, polycarbonate, methanol, granular urea, and engineering thermoplastics. This breadth is underpinned by a strong innovation base, reflected in a patent portfolio exceeding 11,000 and more than 2,000 R&D specialists worldwide. Financially, SABIC reported 2024 sales of SAR 139.98 billion (US$ 37.33 billion), total assets of SAR 278 billion (US$ 74.1 billion), and 2.1 billion SAR in net income from continuing operations. Production volumes reached 53.9 million metric tons, supported by one of the highest standalone credit ratings in the global chemical sector (A+/A1). With sustainability embedded in its long-term vision, SABIC continues to position itself as a global leader advancing low-carbon, circular, and innovative material solutions.
