Key Highlights

Bank Hapoalim B.M., established in 1921 by the central institutions of the Jewish Settlement, the Zionist Histadrut, and the Histadrut General Federation of Hebrew Workers in Eretz Yisrael, is one of Israel's largest and most prominent banks. Headquartered in Israel, the bank has developed an extensive network of branches and commercial banking operations across the country, serving a wide range of individual, business, and institutional clients. Beyond its domestic operations, Bank Hapoalim maintains a significant international presence, including a branch in New York, representative offices abroad, Hapoalim Switzerland, and Bank Pozitif in Turkey, while maintaining relationships with banks globally. The bank operates through three main business divisions. The Corporate Banking Division serves large and mid-market clients via industry-specific banking experts and nationwide business centers. The Retail Banking Division offers private and small-to-medium enterprise customers services in accounts, credit, savings, foreign currency, and capital-market activity through hundreds of branches, digital channels, and call centers. The Financial Markets and International Banking Division handles securities trading, investment banking, asset management, and cross-border banking services, including FDIC-insured deposits in the U.S. Bank Hapoalim's integrated approach ensures accessibility, innovation, and tailored solutions, positioning it as a leading financial institution in Israel and abroad.
