Key Highlights

The Joint Stock Commercial Bank for Foreign Trade of Vietnam, widely known as Vietcombank, traces its origins to April 1963 when it was established from the Foreign Exchange Bureau of the State Bank of Vietnam. Headquartered in Hanoi, the bank became the first state owned commercial bank to pilot privatization, officially operating as a joint stock commercial bank from June 2008. Its shares were later listed on the Ho Chi Minh City Stock Exchange in June 2009 under the stock code VCB. Over six decades, Vietcombank has grown into one of Vietnam's largest and most influential financial institutions with strong regional and global connectivity. The bank operates a diversified portfolio spanning international trade finance, capital and fund management, credit and project financing, as well as modern services including foreign exchange, derivatives, cards, and electronic banking. Supported by advanced digital platforms such as VCB Digibank and VCB CashUp, Vietcombank serves millions of customers through more than 600 domestic and international offices, over 3,000 ATMs and more than 121,000 card acceptance points. With over 24,000 employees and a global correspondent network covering 87 countries, Vietcombank has total assets exceeding VND 2 quadrillion and pretax profits above USD 1.5 billion, affirming its position as Vietnam's leading bank and one of the top 100 global listed banks by market capitalization.
