Key Highlights

Shanghai Rural Commercial Bank Co Ltd SHRCB is a state owned financial institution established in 2005 and headquartered in Shanghai. Formed through the reincorporation of local Rural Credit Cooperatives, the bank has since evolved into a key medium sized player within China's banking sector. Its strategic location in one of the country's most dynamic financial hubs has enabled it to expand its service network and strengthen its role in supporting regional economic development. Over the years, SHRCB has developed a broad presence with more than 360 outlets and a workforce exceeding 11,800 employees. The bank also controls 35 village banks and a financial leasing subsidiary, extending its reach deep into rural and emerging markets. Its business portfolio spans retail banking, corporate finance, inclusive finance, sci tech innovation finance, and sustainable finance, aligning with national priorities such as rural revitalization and the integrated growth of the Yangtze River Delta. Operationally, SHRCB continues to demonstrate steady competitiveness. In 2024, it ranked 128th in the Top 1000 World Banks and secured leading positions among urban rural commercial banks in domestic evaluation systems. Its credit strength remains solid with stable long term ratings from SP Global and SP China, reflecting consistent performance and prudent governance.
